

Head Teacher

Legacy Christian School exists to equip the next generation in South-Central Nebraska to be godly leaders by partnering with parents to disciple them into a biblical worldview through challenging academics for the glory of God.

Legacy Christian is non-denominational, private, Christian school who is seeking a Nebraska certified teacher for the position of Head Teacher. We are located in Holdrege, Nebraska and Fall 2022 will be our first year in operation! Successful candidates will be educators who are passionate about discipling students into a biblical worldview and leading a team of like-minded people. Being flexible and ready to work to see God glorified through our mission is a necessity!

This is a unique position that we know God is calling a unique individual to. Legacy needs someone who is a strong leader, a clear communicator, an organized administrator, passionate about the gospel and discipleship, and ready to fully adopt the mission and vision of Legacy in order to see it come to life for the glory of God. This person will have or be willing to pursue advanced education in administration. That's a tall order, but we know that God's been preparing someone for it.

This is a full-time position with the opportunity for change as we grow and expand the grades we offer. More information about Legacy Christian and how to apply can be found on our website LegacyChristian-Schools.org or on our Facebook page.
