

Part-Time Specialty Teachers

Legacy Christian School exists to equip the next generation in South-Central Nebraska to be godly leaders by partnering with parents to disciple them into a biblical worldview through challenging academics for the glory of God.

Legacy Christian is non-denominational, private, Christian school who is seeking skilled individuals who can teach our K-4th students in Art, Physical Education, Computers, or Music. We are located in Holdrege, Nebraska and Fall 2022 will be our first year in operation! Successful candidates will be skilled people who are passionate about discipling students into a biblical worldview and working on a team of like-minded people. Being flexible and ready to work to see God glorified through our mission is a necessity!

Each of these positions represent a part-time position with the opportunity for growth as we grow and expand in the grades we offer and our enrollment. More information about Legacy Christian and how to apply can be found on our website LegacyChristian-Schools.org or on our Facebook page.

If you feel a call to use your skills to Disciple Leaders, Teach Truth, and Glorify God, please send us an application.
